Greatest ULAPSites!

We have worked, attended lectures, conducted night vigils, lost some Kgs, attended clinicals and ultimately we have written the exams both written and clinicals.

Now is our favorite time of the session when we get to take time off to recharge and come back refreshed -- HOLIDAY!

Though it may be short, make sure you enjoy it to the fullest because come next semester you would have to go through the stress all over again!

Watch this space for resumption date....
